

MINISTER SAYS CAPITAL SETS A BAD EXAMPLE

Rev. Earle Wilkey States Visitors See Line of Saloons on Pennsylvania Avenue.

SPEAKER AT MASS MEETING

In song and speech, the Anti-Saloon League, at its mass meeting last night at the Wesley M. E. Church, denounced the saloons of the city, the "red light district," and the "vice city." Several prominent clergymen of the city spoke in the meeting, which was attended by a number of delegates to the National Anti-Saloon League convention, which closed in this city Thursday. That Washington as the capital of the nation sets a demoralizing example for the rest of the country, because of the large number of saloons was the statement of Rev. Earle Wilkey.

"People come to this city, and what do they see?" he said. "On the principal street of this city, Pennsylvania avenue, now all over the world, there is an undulating line of great shops. The Capitol is a good one, but it has been twisted and bent into a useless shape."

Other speakers of the evening were James L. Ewing, Rev. W. J. McKenney, Rev. Hugh T. Butler, financial secretary, Andrew Wilson, Albert Shoraker, and Rev. A. W. Spencer. Dr. Spencer presided over the religious part of the program, and A. H. Thompson presided over the social part.

ILL. MRS. PANKHURST GOES TO DAUGHTER

Mrs. Pankhurst

London, Dec. 12.—That Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the heroic leader of England's militant suffragettes, will never again return to England is the firm belief of her closest friends here.

Mrs. Pankhurst, after having been released from jail on a week's "cat and mouse" license, had to be carried on a stretcher to the boat train for Dover. She has gone to her daughter's home in Paris, where she will recuperate from the effects of her recent self-imposed fast for forty days.

Her friends believe that Mrs. Pankhurst's health has been totally wrecked by these hunger strikes and that she will never be strong enough to take any part in the movement which has caused her to win international notoriety.

METHODIST. EPISCOPAL. SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

December 13, 1913.

THE SIN OF ACHAN.

LESSON. JOSHUA vi.

Golden Text. Joshua vi: 24. "The sin of Achan was found out."

(1) But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the land of Canaan; Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the devoted thing, and the anger of the Lord was kindled against all the children of Israel because of this.

(2) And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-el, on the east side of Beth-el, and spake unto them, saying, Go up, and spy out the land. And the men went up, and spied out the land.

(3) And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai: make not all the people to toll thither: for they are but few.

(4) So they went up thither of the people about three thousand men; and they fled before them with you any more, except to about thirty and six men; and they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them at the going down of the sun: and the people were weary, and became as water.

(5) And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the Lord until evening, he and all the children of Israel; and they put dust upon their heads.

(6) And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord God, wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites, to say, We are perished? would that we had been content and dwelt beyond Jordan!

(7) O Lord, what shall I say, after that Israel hath turned their backs before their enemies!

(8) For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall compass us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do for me, O Lord?

(9) And the Lord said unto Joshua, Get thee up: wherefore art thou thus fallen upon thy face?

(10) Israel hath sinned; yea, they have even transgressed my covenant which I commanded them; yea, they have even taken of the devoted thing; and have also stolen, and disbanded also, and they have even put it among their own stuff.

(11) Therefore the children of Israel cannot stand before their enemies, they turn their backs before their enemies, because they are become accursed. They will not be able to stand, except to destroy the devoted thing among you.

(12) Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow; for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is a devoted thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the devoted thing from among you.

(13) In the morning, therefore, ye shall be brought near by your tribes, and it shall be that the tribe which the Lord taketh shall come near by families; and the family which the Lord shall take shall come near by households; and the household which the Lord shall take shall come near by man.

(14) And it shall be, that he that is taken with the devoted thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath; because he hath transgressed the covenant of the Lord, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel.

(15) So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel near by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken.

(16) And he brought near the family of Zerah; and he took the family of the Zerahites; and he brought near the family of the Zerahites man by man, and Zabdi was taken.

(17) And he brought near his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

(18) And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the Lord, the God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me what thou hast done; hide it not from me.

(19) And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Of a truth I have sinned against the Lord, the God of Israel, and thus have I done: I saw among the spoil a goodly Babylonian mantle, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

(20) So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the den of Achan, and behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.

(21) And they took them from the midst of the tent, and brought them up to Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel; and they laid them down before the Lord.

(22) And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and all that he had, and burnt them with fire, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them up unto the valley of Achor.

(23) And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? The Lord shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones; and they burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones.

(24) And they raised over him a great heap of stones, unto this day; and the Lord turned from the fierceness of his anger. Wherefore the name of that place was called the valley of Achor, unto this day.
